

Paper Napkins

Various Designers, 1953-1961

Along with his colleagues Charles and Ray Eames and George Nelson, Alexander Girard was one of the leading figures in American design during the postwar era. While textile design was the primary focus of Girard's oeuvre, he was also admired for his work in the graphic arts as well as furniture, exhibition and interior design. Girard brought a sensuous playfulness to twentieth-century design that had been absent from the austere aesthetic of classic modernism. In his work as an interior designer, Girard created a number of concepts for restaurants that went beyond color schemes and furnishings to encompass such details as menu cards, matchboxes, tableware and napkins. The Paper Napkins come in assorted motifs created by Girard for various purposes and selected by Vitra in cooperation with the Girard family.

In the short time since their introduction, the Paper Napkins have become so popular that the collection is being expanded with new colors and motifs. This offers an even wider range of decorative options for dining tables.
